CAMPUS COMMUNITY INVITED TO RECEPTION FOR PFAUS

The entire campus community, all employees and students, is invited to a reception for President and Mrs. John M. Pfau next Thursday. The event, to be held from 2 to 4:30 p.m. in the first floor of the Library, will be the last general opportunity for the campus to say farewell to the college's founding president.

A highlight of the afternoon will be the hanging of the official portrait of the president in the Library. The portrait, painted by Maxine Olson of Cal State, Fresno, was financed by the Advisory Board assisted by the Cal State Associates. It was unveiled at the retirement dinner for the Pfaus last Friday evening. The ceremony for the hanging of the oil painting will begin at 2:30 p.m.

500 PLAN TO MARCH IN COMMENCEMENT

About 500 members of the Class of 1982 are expected to march across the platform during commencement exercises Saturday, June 19, to receive their degrees from President John M. Pfau. The ceremonies begin at 9 a.m. on the lawn south of the gymnasium.

The 911 students eligible to participate include the fall and winter graduates and the spring and summer candidates for degrees. Among the undergraduates, two will graduate with highest honors, nine with high honors and 39 with honors. Graduate students are not eligible for honors at commencement. Students will be receiving B.A., B.S., B.V.E., M.A., M.S., M.B.A., and M.P.A. degrees.

Participants in the ceremonies should arrive at the Physical Education Building no later than 8 a.m. Students will assemble in the large gym and faculty in the small gym. Attendants will be available in the locker rooms to hold purses and other personal property for the participants.

CANDIDATES FOR PRESIDENT TO VISIT CAMPUS SOON

The three or four finalists for the presidency of Cal State, San Bernardino will be on campus one full day during the weeks of June 28 and July 5 for separate meetings with staff, students, faculty and community leaders. The schedule of meetings will be announced once the finalists are selected and their visits arranged. Each finalist will be accompanied by a member of the Board of Trustees and the chancellor's staff.

The Trustees will interview the finalists at a closed meeting July 13 and are expected to make their decision that day.

ALICE WILSON TO RETIRE

Alice K. Wilson, associate librarian in the public services department of the Library, will retire at the end of this month. A former teacher, she has served as the curriculum librarian since the Library moved to the new building. With a master of library science from UCLA, Mrs. Wilson joined the Cal State, San Bernardino library staff Dec. 1, 1969. She also has an A.B. degree in music and English from the University of Dubuque.

SUNDAY CONCERT ON THE GREEN

A special outdoor Concert on the Green will feature the Festival Orchestra and Chorus beginning at 7:30 p.m. on the Commons patio. The audience members for this free concert are encouraged to bring lawn chairs, blankets and picnic dinners. A melodic program of music for spring has been planned by Dr. Richard Saylor, the orchestra director. The concert will begin with "Te Deum," performed by the chorus under the direction of Keating Johnson. This event is dedicated to President John M. Pfau.

WELLNESS PROGRAM HOURS SCHEDULED

Spring quarter participants in the Wellness Resource Center Program are asked to meet with a facilitator by today. The Center's hours are 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 1-3 p.m., in B1 27.

Health risk appraisals conducted at the Health Fair held on campus April 25 may be picked up during the Wellness Center hours. All blood chemistry results are being mailed and should be received within a week.

12 TO GRADUATE FROM CHILDREN'S CENTER

Twelve children will graduate during the graduation and awards ceremonies Thursday at the Children's Center. The activities will begin at 7:30 p.m. A reception will follow.

The graduates are: Leigh Busselle, Donald Cox, Liv Gray, Robert Jacquet, Michael Meave, Jennifer Muga, Stephanie Nedlik, Angela Nieto, Martinique Pinon, Achilles Poloynis, Sarah Thompson and John Wade. Liv, Michael, Jennifer and Martinique have been accepted into the enriched academic kindergarten program in the San Bernardino City Schools.

DR. SCHOFIELD INVITED TO STUDY AT WEST POINT

Dr. Kent Schofield (History) has been invited by the U.S. Army to study American military history at West Point this summer. He will join approximately 80 educators from colleges throughout the country June 23-July 23. Lecturers for the program will include prominent military historians, and each participant also will make a presentation.

Dr. Schofield, whose emphasis has been modern American and diplomatic history, has been teaching a military history class this past year for the ROTC program. He sees the summer study at West Point as a way of expanding his knowledge of the politics of war at an institution with a resource of materials unparalleled by any other institution in the United States. Also on the agenda will be tours of the Antietam and Gettysburg battlefields.

LIBRARY EXTENDS HOURS DURING FINALS WEEK

The Library will be open 8 a.m. to 11 p.m., Monday through Thursday, and 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Friday, during finals week. It will be closed Saturday and Sunday, June 19 and 20.

The Student Union will be open its regular hours during finals week, except on Friday, when it will close early. It will close at 4:30 p.m. today and next Friday.

GERMAN CLUB PLANS GARTENFEST JULY 18

The German Club invites students, faculty and staff to a potluck Gartenfest at 4 p.m., July 18, in Rialto. Information is available from Linda Robinson Haase, club president, 783-1019. Franz Altrichter, president of the Beaumont

German Club, will provide the music.

PSYCHOLOGY LUNCHEON RESERVATIONS ARE DUE

Reservations for the June 19 luncheon honoring psychology and child development graduates should be made by 4:30 p.m. today. The cost is $4 per person, and tickets may be purchased in the Psychology Department Office, PS 219.

The luncheon will begin following commencement, at approximately 11:30 a.m., in the Lower Commons. Families and friends are welcome.

PAWPRINT HAS 1982-83 EDITOR

MCGRUFF VISITS CHILDREN'S CENTER

On May 27, members of the Campus Police gave a presentation on safety tips to the children in the Children's Center.

McGruff, the Crime Prevention Dog, visited the center and handed out coloring books with a safety theme. Participants included Sergeant Pam Stewart, Investigator Quentin Moses, and featured Parking Officer Ellen Johnston as McGruff.

ROBERT SMITH TO RETIRE END OF ACADEMIC YEAR

Dr. Robert Smith, one of the 33 original faculty members when the first classes began in 1965, will retire at the end of this academic year. However, through the Faculty Early Retirement Program, he plans to teach a full load of classes on campus during winter quarter.

Dr. Smith, whose academic speciality is economic history, has been involved in the teaching of world civilizations since he came to Cal State. The author of several books, including a social history of bicycles, Dr. Smith is considered by colleagues and students to be a lecturer of wit and style. In 1978, he gave a series of lectures to the community on Tutankhamun.

Prior to joining the Cal State faculty, he was professor of history and chair of the History Department at Mankato State College in Minnesota. He holds a Ph.D. from the University of Illinois.
